NARRATIVE:

David Delgado is a documented gang member with an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 19. His convictions include assault with a deadly weapon causing great bodily injury, battery, domestic violence with injury, terrorist threats, vehicle theft, receiving stolen property, attempted burglary of auto, resisting arrest, evading a peace officer, disorderly conduct, driving under the influence of alcohol, possession of a controlled substance and failing to report. He has served multiple state prison terms, the longest being a 4 year term for domestic violence with injury. Delgado was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on July 16, 2014. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in September 2014 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Delgado qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for vehicle theft is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His prior criminal history, gang member status and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
